ART AND ADVENTURES WITH AUTHOR/ILLUSTRATOR DAN SANTAT

Saturday May 3, 2:00pm R

Dan Santat is the author and illustrator of over a hundred books for young people. Many of his books are New York Times best-sellers, including The Adventures of Beekle: The Unimaginary Friend, Are We There Yet?, and After the Fall (How Humpty Dumpty Got Back Up Again). His latest works include the best-selling graphic novels, The Aquanaut and A First Time for Everything. Santat won the Caldecott Medal for most distinguished picture book in 2015, the National Book Award for Young People's Literature in 2023 and Golden Kite Award for Middle Grade Fiction in 2024. POVERTY: A DISCUSSION WITH MATTHEW DESMOND

Tuesday May 13, 7:00pm R

Join us with bestselling author Matthew Desmond in conversation with award-winning journalist Natalie Moore. Desmond is a professor of sociology at Princeton University and author of the award-winning book Evicted: Poverty and Profit in the American City. His research focuses on poverty in the United States, city life, housing insecurity, public policy, racial inequality, and ethnography.

Natalie Moore is an award-winning journalist based in Chicago, whose reporting tackles race, housing, economic development, food injustice, and violence. She is the author of the acclaimed The South Side: A Portrait of Chicago and American Segregation and co-author of The Almighty Black P Stone Nation: The Rise, Fall and Resurgence of an American Gang. Moore is the recipient of Chicago Library Foundation's 21st Century Award and a Studs Terkel Community Media Award, among many others. Her work has helped shift the way Chicagoans today think about segregation in the region. Online.

THE LAID-BACK BOOK CLUB

Ongoing

No meetings, no deadlines, just good books! If you can't find time in your schedule for in-person book clubs, jump into the Laid-Back Book Club anytime and try the 12 book selections for the year. Participate any way you'd like - discussion questions in our Facebook group, earning raffle tickets and recording your reading as "activities" on the Beanstack app, or just by reading any of the selections at your own pace! Each month's book selection will be available to check out at the Circulation Desk, but you are welcome to read off-schedule anytime by requesting books in your library account on PrairieCat. More information about this program is available on the Library's website at www.harvard-diggins.org.

The 1,000 Books Before Kindergarten program is open to Harvard Diggins Library cardholders and their child or children who are not yet in Kindergarten.

BRAGGIN' ABOUT BOOKS

Ongoing R

Braggin' About Books is a self-paced reading program that encourages reading by offering collectable book cover brag tags when meeting reading milestones. This program is simple. Participants read books of their choosing, either picture books or chapter books. Readers track their progress with a custom bookmark, then return the bookmark when completing levels to select a book cover brag tag of their choosing. There is no limit to how many tags can be collected. With no deadlines and no required reading, this program is for readers of all levels and abilities. Gr. K-12.

THE CULVER'S READING CHALLENGE

Ongoing R

Read 10 books on your own or have a parent read them to you. After reading 5 books, show your bookmark to a library staff member to have it stamped and receive a coupon for a FREE single scoop of Fresh Frozen Custard from Harvard Culver's. Visit the library to sign up and receive your bookmark. Thank you to Harvard Culver's for its ongoing support of this new reading program. Pre-K-12th.

Class is $20 for AARP members, $25 for non-members; credit card online-only, cash or checks made out to "AARP" at the start of class. Individuals that have AARP United Medicare Supplement Insurance plans are eligible to take the course at no cost through their insurance. Present your Medicare Supplement card at the course. Registration is required and may be done online at AARP.org or by scanning the QR code below.

CAR MAINTENANCE 101

Part 1 - Monday July 7, 6:00pm R
 Part 2 - Monday July 14, 6:00pm R

Whether you are an experienced driver needing a refresher, or a new driver, join us with Nisi Rockcastle, auto mechanic at DeCraene's Service Center in Harvard, to learn the basics of car maintenance in this free 2-part class. During Part 1 we will discuss and have hands-on practice with checking fluids, batteries, hoses & belts, changing light bulbs, and wiper blades. During Part 2, we will discuss dashboard warning lights and tires, plus hands-on practice on how to change a tire and jump a car battery. Please register for each session you will be attending. If you missed Part 1, you are still welcome to sign up for Part 2. All ages are welcome – great for new drivers, too!

SOURDOUGH STARTER 101

Monday June 23, 6:00pm R

Join us for this class where you'll learn all about making and maintaining a sourdough starter with Lindsay from Pink Kitchen Breads. Using detailed instructions, she will guide you through maintaining a long term active starter, share tips and tricks, and a brief introduction to bread-baking. If you'd like to begin your starter in class using a sample of Lindsay's decades-old starter, please bring an 8oz container from home.

PLEIN AIR PAINTING DEMONSTRATION & PRACTICE

Saturday June 14, 10:00am R

Plein Air painting (French for “open air”) is the act of painting outdoors; directly observing nature to capture light, color, and movement. Join us outdoors with local artist Janet Harlow as she works on her latest Plein Air painting and gives tips and tricks for your own. Those who wish to practice will be offered a small canvas to paint, and are encouraged to enter their artwork in the Tiny Art Contest (see below for more information). All ages.

TINY ART CONTEST

Sign Up: June 9-June 28 | Return Artwork June 23-July 3 | Voting July 7 - July 18 R

You are invited to enter the 3rd Annual Tiny Art Contest at Harvard Diggins Library! Sign up and receive your blank canvas. Use supplies from home to create a tiny masterpiece, and return it to the Library. Your artwork can use a variety of mediums - paint, crayon, pencil, charcoal, mixed media, etc. - no glitter or oil pastels, please. The public will vote for their favorite canvas in three categories: Children, Teens, and Adults. Once voting closes, library staff will count all votes and announce the people’s choice winners in all 3 categories. All ages.
